UPDATE 1

⚡ ACTIVE NOW — APR 14, 2026

Late payment interest on unpaid VAT & Corporate Tax

14% per annum
~1.17% per month

Applies from the original due date under Cabinet Decision No. 129 of 2025.

💡 File a Voluntary Disclosure before the FTA contacts you — rate drops to ~1%/month.

△ In effect right now

 DEADLINE — OCT 30, 2026

E-Invoicing is Mandatory

PDF & paper invoices will be legally invalid

Go-Live:
Jan 1, 2027

Businesses with AED 50M+ revenue must appoint an Accredited Service Provider (ASP) by Oct 30, 2026.

 Extended from Jul 1 (MoF update, May 10, 2026). Only structured XML invoices will count.

✓ EFFECTIVE JAN 1, 2026

VAT Law Has Changed

Federal Decree-Law No. 16 of 2025 is now in effect

5-Year Cap on VAT Refunds

Self-invoicing under Reverse Charge Mechanism removed. Input VAT credits from 2021 are already expiring.

💡 If you have unclaimed VAT credits from 2021, act now — they are lapsing permanently.

APRIL 2026 FTA REPORT

FTA Audits Up 89%

The FTA is watching more closely than ever before

176,000
Inspections in 2025

AED 608 million in violations uncovered. Corporate Tax returns due within 9 months of year-end. Late CT registration = AED 10,000 fine.

💡 FTA's digital analytics engine now targets businesses risk-based. No one is immune.

UPDATE 6

ARTICLE 54 — ANTI-EVASION

Input VAT Can Be Denied

FTA can permanently block your VAT recovery claims

'Knew or Should Have Known'

If your supplier is involved in tax evasion and you knew (or should have known), your input VAT is gone permanently.

💡 Vet your suppliers. Keep clean, complete documentation for every purchase and transaction.
